

RICHARD POMFRET has been Professor of Economics at the University of Adelaide since 1992 and Jean Monnet Chair on the Economics of European Integration since 2017. Before moving to Adelaide, he was Professor of International Economics from 1979 to 1991 at the Johns Hopkins University in Washington, Bologna and Nanjing. He has acted as adviser to the Australian government and consultant to international organizations such as the World Bank, Asian Development Bank, the OECD and United Nations Development Programme. In 1993 he was seconded to the United Nations for a year, advising the Asian republics of the former Soviet Union on macroeconomic policy.

His research interests centre on economic development and international economics. His recent books include The Age of Equality: The twentieth century in economic perspective (Harvard UP, 2011), Regionalism in East Asia: Why has it flourished since 2000 and how far will it go? (World Scientific, 2011), Trade Facilitation: Defining, measuring, explaining and reducing the cost of international trade (Edward Elgar, 2012 - co-authored with Patricia Sourdin) and The Central Asian Economies in the Twenty-first Century: Paving a new silk road (Princeton UP, 2019). He is currently working on The Economics of European Integration (to be published by Harvard UP in 2020).
