

CASE Ukraine
CASE – Center for Social and Economic Research

with participation of the National Bank of Ukraine

Program of the seminar

SUSTAINING LOW INFLATION IN UKRAINE

Time: 10:00 – 15:00, December 10, Friday

Venue: “Kyiv” hotel, conference hall (2nd floor), Hrushevskogo str., 26/1

9.30-10.00	Registration
10.00-10.10	Introduction and project background	Malgorzata Jakubiak CASE
10.10-10.30	Prospects for direct inflation targeting in Ukraine	Marek Dąbrowski CASE

Section 1: Value of low inflation and inflation measurement

10.30-10.45	Disinflation in Poland and the use of Core Inflation Indicators	Przemysław Woźniak CASE
10.45-11.00	Core inflation: Estimates for Ukraine	Mykyta Mykhaylychenko CASE Ukraine
11.00-12.00	Comments and discussion
12.00-12.30	Coffee break

Section 2: Monetary transmission mechanisms

12.30-12.50	Monetary Transmission Research in Europe: Lessons for Ukraine	Wojciech Paczyński CASE
12.50-13.10	Problems of Attaining the Monetary Policy Parameters in Ukraine	Viktor Maziarchuk Volodymyr Ryaboshlyk Institute for Reforms
13.10-13.30	Transmission mechanism in Ukraine	Janina Belinska, Joint Institute for Economics
13.30-14.30	Comments and discussion

14.30-15.00

Concluding remarks

CASE

Changes to the program are possible due to economical and political situation in Ukraine.

Project entitled "Sustaining Low Inflation in Ukraine in the Context of Financial Stabilization Policies" was supported by Polish-American-Ukrainian Cooperation Initiative PAUCI (grant no. 03-0185-150).

