

Barbara Błaszczuk is a Professor of Economics and a member of the Scientific Board of the Institute of Economy of the Polish Academy of Sciences (PAN), for whom she has worked in different positions since. She is a co-founder of CASE - Center for Social and Economic Research in Warsaw (1991), a think tank devoted to the support of the transition process. President of the CASE Foundation in 1991 – 2004, since 2006 Deputy Chairwoman of the Council of the Foundation. In 2004 – 2012 she worked as professor at the Nowy Sącz School of Business - National Louis University (WSBNLU). She graduated from the University of Warsaw in 1970 (MA in Economics). In 1975 she received her PhD at the Institute of Organization and Management of the Polish Academy of Sciences (PAN). She was qualified as an assistant professor in 1989 by the Department of Sociology and Economy of the University of Lodz. In 1996 she received an academic title of Professor of Economics. Between 1989-1996 she was an advisor to the Polish government and to the Polish Parliament. Between 1991-1996 she was the deputy Chairwoman of the Council of Ownership Changes at the Prime Minister's Office. She has participated in and co-ordinated numerous domestic and international research projects, including comparative studies on privatization and restructuring processes of the enterprises in Central and Eastern European Countries. Her main fields of research interest are privatization, corporate governance, deregulation of the state sector, and generally systemic changes in countries in transition and in the past, as well as the employee share ownership and industrial democracy. Her additional field of interest during the last few years has been the process of enlargement of the European Union and the economic and social reforms in the countries of EU, especially the implementation of the Lisbon Strategy in old and new accession countries. She is an author, co-author and editor of approximately 150 publications.